Graham Standard Color Expansion

Graham has always offered a wide range of colors, giving design professionals the freedom to be creative and find the perfect look to match any project theme. Now the best just got better.

We are excited to announce our expansion to 28 standard prefinish colors. This new range not only includes the nine standard Graham colors you have long relied on, but also includes many of the same colors used by other companies in the wood door industry.

Below you will find our updated list with corresponding color order number.
